T O T H E R E A D E R.

After several Experiments of late of the Sale of Books by Auction, and the great Satisfaction as well as Benefit that the Buyers in general have received in this way, I have resolved to gratifie the Learned by Exposing to Sale the Library of a Worthy and Learned Person deceas'd, with a considerable Number of other choice Books of most Sciences, some of which have been bought out of the best Libraries abroad (particularly out of the late Famous and Learned Gisbert Voetius's) and others, that for several years last past at great Expence, and out of the most Eminent Seats of Learning beyond the Seas have been Imported; which I hope will be Invitation sufficient to the Curious to Embrace this occasion of Buying what hath not hitherto, and perhaps may not again be Exposed in this way to Sale. I design to observe all the Rules and Laws of Auction already Printed, and shall in the Close verbatim repeat them, only with this alteration in the fourth Rule: That whereas a Month is allowed after Sale for the payment of the Money by the persons that live and constantly abide in Town, it is by me desired, that all other persons, who are Strangers, and their residence in the City uncertain, do pay their Money at the time of Buying, or otherwise nominate some of their Friends, and their Habitation, who shall certainly fetch and pay for the Books within the time limited. And this is the rather desired, that all suspicions may be removed of any Strangers appearing there to bid and enhance the Price to others, without ever intending to send for what they so Buy themselves. And as this may be one way to satisfy the Scrupulous as to the Sincerity of this Undertaking; so I further promise that I shall not use any indirect way to Advance or Promote the Sale by Commission or Friends, but shall content my self with this belief; That the Intelligent and Ingenious will Contribute by their bidding fair and reasonable Prices, to make the Encouragement in some measure answerable to so expensive an Undertaking.

THE CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. THat having this CATALOGUE of the Books, and their Editions under their several Heads and Numbers, it will be more easie for any Person of Quality, Gentlemen or others, to Depute any one to Buy such Book or Books for them as they shall desire, if their occasions will not permit them to be present at the Auction themselves.

II. That he who bids most is the Buyer; And if any manifest Difference shall arise, that then the same Book or Books shall be forthwith Exposed again to Sale, and the highest Bidder to have the same.

III. That all the Books according to the Catalogue are (for so much as we know) perfect: But if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have have his choice of taking or leaving such Imperfect Book or Books.

IV. That the Money for the Book or Books bought by all Gentlemen-buyers, whose persons are well known, is to be paid within one Month after the Sale or Auction is ended, at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-yard; but by all Strangers, it is desired that they pay their Money down at the time of Buying, or then give in the Names of their Friends, and the Place of their Abode, that will certainly fetch or pay for them at the Place aforesaid within the time limited; where the Book or Books so bought, upon payment of the Money shall be delivered.

V. That the Auction will begin the 25th day of November next, at the White-Hart in St. Bartholomew-Close, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, and Two in the Afternoon, and will continue daily (except Fridays and Saturdays) until all the Books be Sold. Wherefore it is desired, That the Gentlemen, or those Deputed by them, may be there precisely at the Hours appointed, lest they should miss the opportunity of Buying those Books which either Themselves or their Friends desire.

Lastly, If any Gentleman have a desire to view or see any, or all of these Books in this Catalogue, or to satisfy themselves in the Condition and Editions of any of them, let them be pleased to call at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-yard to take one with them to shew them the Books, and they shall be very welcom to the place afore-named at any time before the day that the Sale begins.

ITs requested, That all Gentlemen that have Subscribed, or will Subscribe to the ENGLISH-ATLAS, now (by the Direction of those Six Gentlemen mentioned in the Proposals at large) preparing, are desired to send in their Forty Shillings to Moses Pitt, at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-Yard, lest they lose the advantage of being Recorded as Subscribers. The Proposals are given gratis to all that please to send for them by the aforesaid Moses Pitt.
